

The Australian Women's Register

Entry type: Resource
Entry ID: AWH000974

Matron Margaret Lang

Repository Australian War Memorial, Research Centre

Reference ART27682

Date Range 1943 - 1943

Formats Painting

Details

Margaret Irene Lang first served in Solonika with the Australian Army Nursing Service in the First World War. During the Second World War, she was Matron-in-Chief of the Royal Australian Air Force Nursing Service. She completed her training at the Wangaratta District Hospital and the Women's Hospital (later Royal) in Melbourne. Lang was appointed an Officer of the Order of the British Empire on 8 June 1950 for service with the Royal Australian Air Force Nursing Service during the Second World War. [Source: <http://www.womenaustralia.info/biogs/AWE0572b.htm>]?overall: 54.8 x 40.8 cm; framed: 64 x 50 cm?oil on canvas on board?Australia: Victoria, Melbourne

Author Details

Anne Heywood

Created 1 October 2003

Last modified 4 January 2018