Details

1 hour??Ellinor Walker joined the Women's Non-Party Political Association in 1914 at the age of 21. She speaks of her understanding of the Association's formation in 1909, her reasons for joining, the Association's objectives and rationale, and the special strengths and interests of 'the mother half of the race'. (Although Miss Walker does not speak of Edith Hubbe, the WN-PPA was one of Mrs Hubbe's interests during the 1920s.)
