Entry type: Organisation
Entry ID: AWE0192

Office for Women

(1977 -)

Born	19770101, Canberra Australian Capital Territory Australia
Occupation	Government department

Summary

The Office for Women (previously the Office of the Status of Women) works to mainstream women's issues in Australian society and internationally. Its work with governments, the women's sector, and the broader community is focused on three priority areas:

Reducing violence against women
Women's equal place in society
Economic Independence.

Published resources

Conference Paper
Femocrats and Ecorats: Women's Policy Machinery in Australia, Canada and New Zealand, Sawer, Marian, 1996, http://www.unrisd.org/unrisd/website/document.nsf/(httpPublications)/D1A254C22F3E5CC580256B67005B6B56?OpenDocumen

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

State Library of South Australia
Recording of a Women Writers Forum [sound recording]

National Archives of Australia, National Office, Canberra
OSW - [Office of the Status of Women] - Third National Women's Consultative Concil - Jessie Street, Trust - 1989

Subject Index cards, alphabetical series (Relating to the Office of the Status of Women)

File registration and movement cards (Relating to the Office of the Status of Women)

NULL
Australian Council for Women - ACW - Collection - NJSN_AC-005

Mitchell and Dixson Libraries Manuscripts Collection
Patricia Brennan records relating to Movement for the Ordination of Women Sydney, 1974-2009

Author Details
Clare Land

Created 27 November 2001
Last modified 5 February 2009