Entry type: Person
Entry ID: AWE0212

Tennent, Gaye

(1907 - 1980)

Born	19070428, Cleveland Transvaal South Africa
Died	19801204, Carlton Victoria Australia
Occupation	Lecturer, Teacher

Summary

A South African by birth, Gaye Tennent received her later education in London and at the University of Melbourne. Early crippled by poliomyelitis, she graduated B.A. (Hons) in 1930 and M.A. in English with a Dip. Ed. In 1934. She became a school teacher and later a tutor at Janet Clarke Hall, Vice-Principal at the Women's College and tutor and lecturer in the University English Department.

Published resources

Resource
Trove, National Library of Australia, 2009

Archival resources

The University of Melbourne Archives
Jennings, Vera

Author Details
Clare Land

Created 8 December 2001
Last modified 29 October 2018